

63A-3-503 Legal services.

The Office of the Attorney General shall:

- (1) provide to the office all legal services and advice related to the collection of accounts receivable:
 - (a) owed to the state; or
 - (b) for which the office has collection responsibilities; and
- (2) establish policies governing:
 - (a) legal matters involving accounts receivable; and
 - (b) litigation of past-due accounts receivable.

Amended by Chapter 74, 2013 General Session